House Passes Foreign Aid Bill Slashed By More Than Billion Under Ike Figure

President Walks, Plans To Resume Office Duties

Washington, June 11 (AP)—President Eisenhower today took another little walk, suffered less pain, and made a start toward resuming the duties of his office.

The doctors said Eisenhower took "walking exercises" around 9:30 a. m. (EDT) on his own initiative.

A 12:15 p. m. EDT medical bulletin said "the President's condition remains excellent," with blood pressure, temperature and respiration "essentially normal."

Harriman Denies He's Trying to Stop Adlai

New York, June 11 (AP)—Gov. Averell Harriman, now an announced candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, says he is not part of any "stop-Stevenson" movement.

The New York governor said yesterday that any remarks he has made against "moderation" and "middle-of-the-road" policies were directed at President Eisenhower and not at Adlai E. Stevenson.

Harriman announced Saturday his active candidacy for the Democratic nomination. Pre-

Fire Police Election Set Wednesday

The Volunteer Fire Police Association of Ulster County will hold its annual meeting Wednesday at 8:30 p. m. at the West Hurley firehouse at which time officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

President Alvin Beatty requests a large attendance.

Charter membership cards will be given out and also signal gesture pamphlets are in the hands of the secretary and will be available. These pamphlets will assist police in directing traffic.

County Judge Louis G. Bruhn will be the guest speaker at the meeting.

At the recent state convention of the New York State Fire Police Association held in Albany, Secretary Arthur Rice of the Ulster County Association was elected a director of the State Association for a one-year term.

To date the Ulster County Fire Police Association has 180 members.

Refreshments will be served by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the West Hurley Department.

Thinks Benefits Can Be Restored by GOP Support

Washington, June 11 (AP)—Sen. George (D-Ga.) said today Democrats should be able to win a Senate fight to restore a disability benefits program to the Social Security bill if they get the votes of several Republicans.

George told a reporter he is confident most Senate Democrats would vote with him to put back the disability section stricken from the bill by the Senate Finance Committee.

"If we can get some Republican help, we can win," he said.

He added it is apparent to him the Eisenhower administration is seeking to line up as many GOP Senators as possible to hold the bill in the form which it came from the finance committee. But he said he expects a number of Republicans to refuse to do this.

Senate majority leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) announced the long-delayed debate on the Social Security bill may start late today or tomorrow. The debate is likely to continue for a week or more.

Sen. Byrd (D-Va.), who joined with all seven Republicans and some Democrats on his finance committee to strike major sections from the bill, said he was ready at any time.

Byrd said he would stress the cost of the proposed benefits in the bill as it passed the House last year, and the extra taxes they would involve.

The major Senate fight is expected to be over the disability program. Under the House bill, Social Security benefits would be paid to persons totally disabled at age 50 or higher.

vously, he had called himself an "inactive" candidate.

STEVENSON has said he regards Harriman as his main opponent for the nomination.

Harriman said in an interview on NBC-TV's "Meet the Press" yesterday that he would not criticize or discuss positions taken by Stevenson or another candidate, Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee. He described both as "fine men."

Meanwhile, Carmine G. DeSario, a leading Harriman backer, said yesterday Harriman will win the nomination, and with strong support from the western states.

"I HAVE EVERY confidence that the governor will get the support of Nevada, Idaho, Washington, Wyoming, Oklahoma, Kansas and other states in that area," DeSario said in a television interview. DeSario is a Democratic National Committeeman.

Harriman's western supporters have scheduled a rally for him in Denver next Saturday. Delegates with 80 to 90 national convention votes are expected to attend.

Harriman already has most of New York's 98 delegate votes.

HARRIMAN SAID he did not believe President Eisenhower's operation "will have any influence" on the campaign. DeSario said the American public is "sensitive to the health problem and it just can't be played down if you are going to be realistic about it."

DeSario said only President Eisenhower can decide whether to run for re-election.

"I am sure that no individual, in good conscience, will sacrifice the welfare of the people for his own personal ambition," DeSario said.

Harriman said his own understanding of the international situation and the needs of the domestic economy make him the strongest candidate the Democrats could nominate.

Harriman held many high posts in the Roosevelt and Truman administrations. He is a former ambassador to Moscow.

It added:

"He walked with but little support from his bed to an easy chair which was placed 20 feet from the bed."

"He sat in the chair for 15 minutes and then walked, again with little support, back to bed."

"During these exercises the President had less discomfort than yesterday."

YESTERDAY only 30 hours after his emergency surgery of early Saturday morning—the President walked a total of about 30 feet with attendants partly supporting him. Today the only assistance he had was a hand on the elbow.

Mrs. Eisenhower was in the room on both occasions.

Eisenhower conferred for 10 minutes today with his chief assistant, Sherman Adams, and reached several decisions including the designation of Vice President Nixon to represent him at two forthcoming events—the regular National Security Council meeting Thursday and a Blair House luncheon Wednesday on Washington avenue, and John MacDonald, 17, of Elmendorf street, who was arrested early Sunday on Downs street.

WATERFALL and Carney each paid $10 fines when they appeared today before City Judge Raymond J. Mino. Mac Donald is due in city court Wednesday morning. Carney and MacDonald were arrested by officers Gilbert Gray and Joseph Keller and Waterfall by Everett Emmick and Gray.

Earle Williams, 19, of Allendale, was arrested by Gray and Keller at 11:30 p. m. Saturday on Greenkill avenue. He was booked on charges of being an unlicensed driver, having an unregistered vehicle and no insurance. Judge Mino today put the case over until Tuesday.

HELD ON speeding charges were Clifford Dunkel, Jr., 23, of Lake Hill, picked up on Foxhall

School Meeting Tonight at Tillson

Board of education members and committees on school affairs from various school districts in the townships surrounding Kingston will meet this evening at 8 o'clock in the Tillson School to study any proposed action that might be taken in the present school situation.

All persons interested in school affairs are invited to attend, and all representatives from the school districts involved are strongly urged to attend this very important meeting.

VACCINATED children may become far less able to pass natural polio infections to other family members. There would be fewer "silent carriers" who could spread dangerous virus during epidemics on to others.

The chances that Salk vaccine shots could bring this extra dividend were described by Dr. Jonas E. Salk of the University of Pittsburgh, who developed the vaccine, and Dr. David Bodian of the Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore.

THEY SPOKE at a polio symposium at the opening of the 105th Annual Meeting of the American Medical Association.

Simultaneously, Dr. Leonard Scheele, surgeon-general of the U. S. Public Health Service, called for use of "every drop" of Salk vaccine as soon as possible, even during polio epidemics.

"Vaccine given in July and August will prevent paralytic cases and even deaths in August and September," Dr. Scheele declared.

SALK VACCINE is being given to children under 15, the most susceptible to this crippling disease.

But even so the shots could hit at the strongest link in polio's chain of infection—the passage of natural infection from human to human—Dr. Salk and Bodian said.

Vaccination produces antibodies standing guard in the blood to intercept polio virus before it strikes at nerves.

BUT IT MIGHT also reduce the length of time or degree to which a child harbors or reproduces virus which invades him later on.

Dr. Salk said it appears some

10 Children Badly Shaken As School Bus Overturns

A group of 10 children riding in a 1950 school bus were shaken up this morning when the vehicle ran off the Shaupeneak road between Esopus and Rifton and turned over in a field.

Apparently none of the children received more than a few scratches and bruises, according to Trooper Stephen Kurpil of the Highland state police.

The driver, Joseph Cardinale, 54, of Tillson, was issued a sum-

Chicago, June 11 (AP)—Going full-speed ahead with Salk polio shots might even protect some unvaccinated persons, including parents of young children, two polio experts said today.

AMA Head Tells Medics They Should Be Frank

BY ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
CP Science Reporter

Chicago, June 11 (AP)—Doctors were urged today to take personal steps to eliminate criticisms from patients, such as having to wait too long, or not being told fully about their ailments.

The President's condition remains excellent. His pulse, blood pressure, temperature and respiration are essentially normal.

much about long waiting as about fees," Dr. Murray said.

As for frankness, the patient's health "is his personal concern, and he should know if he has a disease or if he doesn't . . . if he needs an operation or doesn't . . . absolute honesty and frankness in this matter will be appreciated."

Dr. Murray predicted significant changes coming in medicine, including more voluntary health insurance programs, closed panels of medical practice with financing by a third party, and union health centers.

He addressed the house of delegates, the policy-making body of the AMA, at the opening of the AMA's 105th annual meeting.

Dr. Murray said the survey found most people thought their doctors were sympathetic, kind, competent, frank and honest, and personally interested in them. But, he said, "these are the things all patients should find in their physicians."

"The public, however, still continues to be critical of us for high fees, for coldness and impatience, for lack of frankness, and unavailability."

The task of overcoming these "is one for the individual physician."

"As long as we can continue to produce good medical care at reasonable cost, as long as we

Radio Employs More Musicians, Petrillo Says

Atlantic City, N. J., June 11 (AP)—Radio still leads television in providing employment for musicians, says James C. Petrillo.

Petrillo, president of the American Federation of Musicians, gave a report to delegates gathered here for the Federation's annual convention which opened today.

The report, distributed last night, said musicians received a total of almost 27 million dollars in wages through radio and TV employment during 1955. But more than 60 per cent of the money came from radio, the report said.

In the report, Petrillo blamed, as he has before, recorded music for increased unemployment of musicians. It is "a destructive force to the professional musician" when used commercially, Petrillo said.

The report also said Hollywood film studios paid out $2,768,000 to 303 musicians under contract during 1955, and the record industry paid a total of $38,000 to musicians for recording dates.

Kreuz - Wertheim, Germany, June 11 (AP)—German police said a 21-year-old American soldier ran amok on a ferry boat last night, knifing a German housemaid and then stabbing the ferry operator to death. The girl, Hildegard Wagner, 22, was reported in a serious condition. Police said the soldier was stationed at Wertheim but did not disclose his name and home address. He was turned over to U. S. military police for questioning.

ADIRONDACK TRAILWAYS*Assailants Are Sought in Two Brutal Murders

Montreal, June 11 (AP)—Police today sought assailants responsible for the brutal and apparently unconnected weekend murders of two children. One boy was thrown screaming into the St. Lawrence river and the other died from bloody head wounds inflicted by a rough chunk of concrete.

Yvon LaFrance, 14, of suburban Ville La Salle and Robert Jones, 9, of Montreal North were the victims of crimes police said were "among the cold-blooded ever perpetuated in this area."

The LaFrance boy and a companion had bicycled Sunday to the St. Lawrence to fish. The other boy Robert Morissette, 13, told the police "two grown-up men came up to us," grabbed Yvon and threw him, screaming and helpless, into the river. Morissette escaped to call the police. An elderly man, fishing nearby, agreed with the boy's account.

Young Jones was missed by his parents Friday night. He apparently had left after dinner for a Montreal North fair ground after being refused permission to "help blow up some balloons" there.

Boy Scouts, Sea Cadets and Canadian Legionnaires joined police and other volunteers in the search. Two Sea Cadet officers, neighbors of the family, spotted Bobby's white tennis shoes and blue jeans sticking out from under a bush 1 1/2 miles from his home. His skull was smashed.

An autopsy was planned to determine whether the boy was killed by a sex deviate. He was found fully clothed.

Hand Blown Off

Shreveport, La., June 11 (AP)—Lawrence Anderson's act went over big for 1,500 spectators at the Jimmy Lynch thrill show yesterday, but for the pain-racked clown it was a tragedy.

Anderson, of Chicago, misjudged the timing of a giant firecracker, and it exploded in his left hand. His hand was blown off. But his grease-paint smile hid his tortured face and the crowd howled with laughter as he waved an arm smeared with red that only he knew was not ketchup.

The crowd thought it was all part of the act. The clown went to an ambulance nearby, and attendants whisked him to a hospital. Physicians said his condition was not serious.

4 ways to pick up a bargain

No matter how you pick it up, it's nice to get a bargain. And your telephone gives you one of the very biggest bargains in your family budget every time you lift the receiver.

Consider how much your phone does for you. The time and steps it saves every day. The pleasure that comes from keeping in touch with out-of-town family and friends. The comfort of knowing that your phone is always ready to help out in any emergency—day or night.

Then consider how little your telephone service costs. On the average, it's risen less than 18% since 1940—compared with a 92% increase in the cost of living.

Any way you measure it, you'd find it hard to pick up a bargain that's bigger.

SUNSHINE ON THE FARMS

Things are looking up on the nation's farm front, and the political consequences may be considerable if the trend holds substantially through the fall months.

In the month ending in mid-May, prices of farm products rose three per cent. It was the fifth straight monthly rise, and brought prices to their highest levels since a year ago.

Not all farmers will cheer this news, of course, because some didn't benefit from the general gains in recent weeks. Prices for cotton, wheat and eggs sagged somewhat while increases were being registered for hogs, cattle, fruits, potatoes and lambs.

But as an added note of promise, Secretary of Agriculture Benson has now told farmers what kind of cash payments they may expect if they take part in the newly-enacted soil bank program. He's offering them from $24 to $66 an acre for plowing up wheat, corn and rice acreage.

To get this kind of money this year, farmers either have to leave certain acreage idle or plow up crops already growing. Benson isn't too happy about that part of the plan, but Congress directed him to put it into effect. Some acreage on which crops are "too far advanced" may not be eligible for payments.

The big point is, however, that between rising prices and soil bank payments a good many farmers who have been in or near distress may see their prospects brightening for the first time in many a moon.

The picture is not entirely rosy. Prices are expected to suffer the usual seasonal dips in the fall, though some forecasters say they still will exceed 1955 figures. And the general farm price level, for all its advance, is still 22.5 per cent below the record highs of February, 1951.

Besides, prices paid by farmers for the things they use have gone up nearly 1 per cent in the last month, offsetting to some extent the rise in farm prices. And hanging over the whole farm market are the huge surpluses built up in the postwar years.

Nevertheless, the news is of the sort that is sure to be read with enthusiasm in top Republican circles. Fears of a widespread farm revolt, fanned by the big Democratic primary vote in Minnesota last March, have lessened with passing time. Rebellion has not developed elsewhere in a clearly measurable way.

The price gains for hogs must add particular cheer to GOP hearts. Hog farmers were among the hardest hit in the long downswing, and their votes could be decisive in Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota and possibly even Illinois.

All this good cheer might vanish if the fall downturn was more than seasonal or a summer drouth occurred. But if these things don't happen, Democrats may find a stronger economic issue in sagging Detroit motor output than out among the waving corn.

A friend maintains that abstract painters use jigsaw puzzles with most of the pieces missing as models from which to work.

TRAFFIC LIGHT TURNS GREEN

The country is sure now to have a vast new road program that for the first time since World War II may be roughly equal to the national need.

The main feature is the allotment of some $25 billion for construction of a 40,000-mile interstate road network spanning the country. This would be built over a 13-year period.

Almost every U. S. city of 50,000 population or more would be linked with highways free of intersections and stoplights. Some 33,000 of the 40,000 miles of road would be dual, divided thoroughfares of more than two lanes each. Eight lanes would be built in some cases.

* * * * * This is the kind of highway language we should be talking in 1956. Let's not have any big delay in getting this program off the ground.

THE PROSPECTIVE VISIT

Why Comrades Khrushchev and Bulganin should want to visit the United States is not difficult to understand. They want to see how capitalism and democracy really work. What they will do with this knowledge, no one can tell.

Also, they undoubtedly would like to tell their underlings that Stalin tried to get an invitation but never made it; and that they did get an invitation. So they are bigger than Stalin.

There is danger, however, in their coming to this country and all the agencies of government, including the Army, Navy, FBI, and police will have to be mobilized. There are a great many Ukrainians in the United States whose relatives were murdered, about 20,000,000 of them died, in the man-made famine that Stalin arranged in that country and that Khrushchev carried out. There are millions of people in the United States of Polish, Czechoslovakian, and Hungarian origin who are deeply embittered against both Khrushchev and Bulganin for what happened to their countries before and since Stalin died.

So to start with, it must be made certain that no ticker-tape parade is held in New York because who knows what will be thrown besides ticker-tape? It used to be a custom to tear up telephone books and throw the torn pages out of the window. But who will guarantee that no one will throw entire Manhattan telephone books, each one of which weighs about five pounds? It would be awful if one of those books hit Khrushchev and he knocked out. The Russians would then have a cause for war. For while Khrushchev is not the head of state, he is more than that; he is the head of the Party. Whereas the Czar regarded himself as the successor to Augustus Caesar, Khrushchev is successor to Karl Marx. Is such a man to be konkout by a telephone book?

And who says that they will limit themselves to telephone books? They might use tomatoes and cabbages and who knows what else? Who, in fact, can say what aberrations the human mind can develop under such circumstances? At Christ Church, Oxford, the British police found six Stalins waiting to receive Khrushchev and Bulganin, so the cavalcade was diverted from this beautiful college. Besides, the words Christ and church, combined or separated, would have been too much for these travelers.

Here we would not limit ourselves to six Stalins. We should have, at least, 600, all smoking pipes and all looking like the ghost of the old dictator and while the cavalcade drove from the City Hall toward the Waldorf-Astoria, a parade, without a permit, of course, would be marching to meet it, headed by the figure of Cardinal Mindszenty, followed by the 600 Stalins. Then would come the American Legion, the Catholic War Veterans, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the American Jewish League Against Communism, possibly with Senator Joe McCarthy on a White Horse and Senator Bill Knowland and Senator Jenner leading the remains of the pre-1952 Republican Party. The two parades would meet at Union Square where Elizabeth Gurley Flynn and Professor Corliss Lamont would deliver addresses of welcome before the riot started.

No! New York is no place for Khrushchev and Bulganin. Maybe it would be smarter to have them come directly to Washington if Congress is not in session. Otherwise, they would have to be asked to address Congress and Khrushchev would, with his naive frankness, tell Congress to go to the devil, as he does not believe in such antiquated and obsolescent institutions. Then, if Senator Wayne Morse is still in the Senate, he could deliver an address lasting five or six hours explaining what Khrushchev meant by his obviously simple remark. After which there would be a vodka and ikra party at the Russian embassy from which Stalin's pictures will have disappeared.

It is definitely smarter to bring these people to Washington and to keep them there. New York or Chicago are dangerous places for such as them. It would also not be sound for anyone to accept a cable from them. The Senate Internal Security Subcommittee would start an investigation into who stole the cable from whom and whether the Morgenthau Diaries predicted that a von-veto Natural Gas Act amendments were registered as a congressional lobbyist.

This is revealed by a check of of lobbyists' registrations for the first quarter of 1956, when the gas bill was before the Senate.

Every individual or firm attempting to influence legislation is required by law to file with the Senate secretary or House clerk a quarterly report on his lobbying activities and expenses.

The names checked in this connection were those brought out in the disclosure by Sen. Francis Case (R.-S.Dak.) that a $2,500 contribution had been offered his campaign manager in an environment created by Neff.

The evidence was turned over to the Department of Justice for investigation on April 7, but so far there has been no action.

Taking up where the George Committee left off, another special, eight-man, bi-partisan group under Sen. John L. McClellan (D.-Ark.) has been operating as though it had all the time in the world to get going—which it has. It does not have to report until Jan. 31, 1957.

Washington — (NEA) — None of the five principals involved in Los Angeles oilman Howard B. Keck's effort to give campaign funds to senators favoring the now-vetoed Natural Gas Act amendments were registered as a congressional lobbyist.

Paul Gerdes, Neff's law partner, made two attempts to contribute to Sen. Bourke Hickenlooper (R.-Ia.) and the Iowa GOP, but failed. Hickenlooper voted for the bill.

INVESTIGATING ALL THIS, a select Senate committee under Sen. Walter George (D.-Ga.) reported that Neff was engaged in lobbying, and that he and Putnam operated with "galloping irresponsibility." Keck was charged with "extreme laxity." Ross was characterized as "irreproachable . . . operating in an environment created by Neff."

The evidence was turned over to the Department of Justice for investigation on April 7, but so far there has been no action.

Today in National Affairs*Eisenhower's Illness Seen Having No Effect on Vote

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, June 11—Modern medical science has just given the world dramatic exhibition of why the life span of man is increasing. For now the physicians who performed a surgical operation on President Eisenhower last week pronounced him as likely to be in better health than he was before.

What would have been a non-publicized, almost routine case of surgery became for all the people of the country to read an example of how nowadays the removal of an obstruction in the intestinal tract actually protects the individual against what might be a serious danger to him in the future.

ALREADY THE widespread knowledge disseminated about the President's bout with thrombosis last autumn has changed the attitude of millions of people who used to think heart attack meant that a person became an invalid the rest of his life. Now they know that under proper care in most cases a normal life can be lived.

Naturally because in recent months the question of whether after an illness a President may or may not serve out his term has aroused nationwide discussion, any indisposition on the part of the man in the White House attracts sensational attention. Had it been anybody else, even a member of Congress, such a case of intestinal trouble would probably not have been recorded in the press at all and the question of whether any future incapacity was involved would hardly have been asked.

Many public men have undergone surgery in recent years without impairing their usefulness in the political arena. Adlai Stevenson has had two operations—one for kidney stones and later for gallstones. Harry Truman has had a gall bladder operation and removal of an infected appendix. Governor Harriman of New York was in the hospital a few weeks ago for an operation on the prostate gland. Nobody today assumes that for these three men the tenure of their political lives has in any way been shortened by their hospital experiences.

What effect on the presidential contest of 1956 will all this have? No more than it has before. The Democrats will hesitate to make the President's health a real issue though they may nibble at it. Such tactics, however, can boom or bust.

WATCHDOGS OF PROSPERITY

Starting in 1933 and continuing down to the present moment, the watchdogs of America's prosperity have grown in numbers and in power. Never in the annals of this country's affairs have the economic historians had so many interesting things to write about and to analyze.

Twenty-three years ago, Congress took America off the gold standard. Gold was nationalized. The government legally bought all the precious metal from private owners at $20.67 an ounce. Then, when Uncle Sam had the bulk of the four billions in his possession, Congress passed legislation making it possible to mark this gold up to a price of $41.34 an ounce. The purpose of this was to arrest deflation and to promote prosperity.

GOLD NEVER got that high here. The price was stabilized at $35 an ounce where it still is. Thus, on the gold that the government bought at $20.67 an ounce, Uncle Sam achieved at the expense of those from whom he bought, a profit of $14.33 an ounce.

This gain became a stabilization fund and some of it was used to retire government debt.

These acts started America on the long road of inflation and some of the prosperity of recent years rests solidly on what Congress did.

Will gold ever be marked up again? Who can tell? If the government gets into an economic jam again and a weak Congress believes that inflating the dollar will stave off a serious depression, the value of gold might be increased in the future.

A second way in which the watchdogs of prosperity have kept things going is the manner in which the Federal Reserve System has operated. In about 25 years the governmental debt has increased about $250,000,000. As a result, Uncle Sam has had to borrow nearly $30,000,000 a day on the average for a quarter of a century to pay his bills. Truly it can be said that some of America's basic prosperity, past and present, rests on colossal debt.

Debt in many circles has become an economic blessing. In far too many families debt is today the springboard of economic welfare rather than thrift and savings. Thousands of people are up to their ears in consumer credit without a dollar in savings banks.

A third way the watchdogs are promoting prosperity is through the Commodity Credit Corporation. Most urban people earning wages and salaries are harassed by high living costs. Agricultural surpluses are immense. Yet, without farm prosperity, the country will be in bad shape.

Consequently, the House Banking Committee in Washington has recently approved a bill giving the CCC power to increase its borrowing from $12,000,000,000 to $14,000,000,000. And at the same time this was sanctioned, the Committee voted an amendment that would have limited to $25,000 a year the amount any individual farmer might receive through price supports.

A fourth way that the watchdogs of prosperity are employing to keep things rosy is the juggling of basic interest rates. When the Federal Reserve Banks of America increased the cost of money recently, there were howls of protest against such action.

Automobile manufacturers, house builders, equipment suppliers and a host of other businessmen whose success necessitates easy and cheap credit made strenuous objections. It could be that before this article appears, money rates will have been reduced.

It seems to me that investors should constantly keep in mind the economic powers — however inflationary they may be — resident in America to keep prosperity going. And always we shall have at Washington statesmen and politicians who will not hesitate to use these powers.

Four-Year Terms Are Favored by Women

New York, June 11 (AP) — The

Women's National Republican Club says the GOP platform should include a plank favoring four-year terms for members of the House of Representatives.

Mrs. Edward E. Anderson, club president, said yesterday the recommendation was based on a poll of the group's nationwide membership.

"Under the present two-year system Congressmen are handicapped in the performance of their duties by the necessity of devoting so much time to campaigning for re-election during the second year of their term," the club said.

The club has announced no federal tax reductions before the budget is balanced; "full rights as citizens" for women; and continued exclusion of Communist China from the United Nations. The recommendations were forwarded to the Republican party platform committee.

Saugerties Has Many Changes During Police Chief's Term

There have been many changes in the Saugerties Police Department since 1920, according to Chief Arthur W. Richter, who helped organize it more than 35 years ago. He's still on the job.

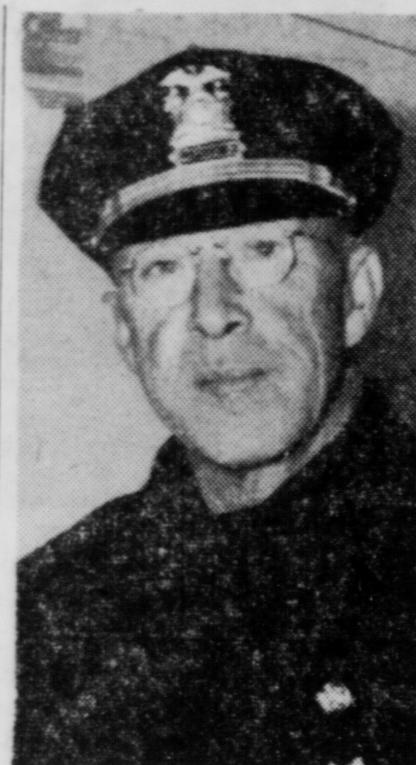

Each day it seems there's a new challenge. Right now it's traffic, even though the thruway has relieved the village of some. "We're in the greatest expansion period I can remember," said the man who left the New York State Police to be the boss in Saugerties. He took the job on the insistence of Mayor William Ziegler, who has since died. He was the father of William, the current president of the Board of Education.

Since 1920, Chief Richter has served under 11 mayors. The department has increased from two to seven men. At first it was the chief and Patrolman Patrick Scully. Now it's the chief and Sgts. Harold Mills and John J. Keeley, patrolmen Gordon Keeley, John Washburn, Donald Sullivan and John Hill.

The department has one patrol car. Prior to 1932 a motorcycle was the only motor equipment. There were a few speeders even back in those days. The chief rode the cycle to keep them in check.

Things were quieter in general, and there were a few horses for delivery wagons and pleasure driving.

Now it's just more and more motor traffic.

CHIEF A. W. RICHTER

What has been the chief's experience otherwise?

Well, he's seen a lot happen, but likes to tell this one: He stuck his finger into the back of a prowler and disarmed him. The fellow was carrying a .38 revolver.

It happened in the high school. The chief went in on a hurried call without his own gun, but outfoxed the prowler in the darkness of washroom.

Sgt. Keeley and Patrolman Dillon were in the building at the time waiting to make a pinch if the intruder came their way.

Where did the police get their tip—from a burglar alarm between the school and the home of Sgt. Keeley across the street. The hookup was connected after reports that prowlers had been seen at the school building.

The burglar had two men waiting for him in a car nearby. He talked and the police nabbed them too. They were carrying some blasting caps and nitro.

Chief Richter likes to paint. He's an artist at lettering. You'll agree after looking at the Chamber of Commerce sign which says "Welcome to Friendly Saugerties."

The chief likes baseball. He didn't quit playing until he was 51, after a full season at first base in the old Firemanic League. One year he hit .384 to lead the loop. The summer Saugerties Athletic Club won the Ulster-Greene championships, he was manager.

In 1937 he made the sports headlines of the day by pitching a no hit-no run game for the Saugerties club against the Glasco All-Stars.

A native of Amsterdam, he was born Dec. 30, 1891, the son of Charles and Anna Richter. His first employment was with Faultless Rubber Company in Ohio. While there he played ball with the company team in the Central Ohio League.

During this job he learned that he had passed the tests for both the Amsterdam Police Department.

ment and railway mail clerk. He returned to Amsterdam and became a patrolman at the age of 20. This marked the beginning of 45 consecutive years as a law enforcement officer. Three years later he joined the first corps of the New York State Police when it was organized in 1917.

Chief Richter has a son and three daughters, and five grandchildren.

The chief's first wife was Irene Cook, who died in 1920. They had a son, Arthur, who lives in Virginia, Minn., and a daughter, Frances, now Mrs. Huyler Van Buren of Port Ewen.

The present Mrs. Richter was Julia Garrison of West Saugerties. They have two daughters, Virginia, wife of Robert McDowell of McKownville, and Joyce, a secretary for law firm of Rosenblum and Lamb in Saugerties.

Chief Richter is a member of Ulster Lodge 193, F & A.M.: Association of Former New York State Troopers. R. A. Snyder Fire Company and the Saugerties Exempt Firemen's Association. He became an exempt fireman by serving a full membership in Washington Hook & Ladder Company.

Retirement? He's not even thinking about it. Life could be dull that way, he thinks.

Do You Remember

By SOPHIE MILLER

I often wonder what advertises a town most. It seems to be that an interesting Museum draws thousands of people year around, and writers continually expound the town's interest. Look at Hyde Park, which brings bus loads from New York and other places.

One of the places which I compare with Kingston Point Park is of course the Marine Museum at Mystic, Conn. Once again The New York Herald Tribune, of Sunday, June 3, 1956 there is an illustrated article on why everyone should go there. This summer the Frank C. Munson Memorial Institute of American Maritime History at Mystic is accepting teachers of history or economics and who already hold at least a bachelor's degree for special courses starting July 10. They will meet three hours each week day for five weeks. In addition, separate seminars will be devoted to particular fields of study, and visiting lecturers will address special evening meetings. This Institute was endowed in the will of Mrs. Frank C. Munson in memory of her husband, president of the pre-war Munson Steamship Line.

Much had been written about Mystic Seaport Museum in our local press when the Ferryboat Brickerhoff was to go up there. Every writeup, I notice, about the Museum, something is written about the Brickerhoff ferry, which ran between Highland and Poughkeepsie and many of us knew well. C. Bradford Mitchell, the writer of the article says "The ferryboat Brickerhoff, with her fine example of a vertical beam sidewheel steam engine, for a century the dominant type of American marine propulsion."

This Mystic Seaport in its 20 acres of buildings, wharves, ship museum exhibits, is open to the public, and "dedicated to the preservation and interpretation of our maritime tradition." It has a well filled library and display buildings and on the shore the visitors see a genuine transplanted ropewalk, sail loft, apothecary shop, blacksmith shop, chapel and even a tavern. They have on the waterfront the "Charles W. Morgan" the last of New Bedford's great whaling fleet and the steel square-rigger Joseph Conrad, which gave her active life to training Danish and American seafarers, with a romantic interlude when she ranged the world under Alan Villiers' command. Also the coasting schooner, "Australia."

Mystic never maintained its own line of great white "palace steamers" to New York, but here was built, through the 19th century, one of the greatest fleets of wooden vessels, both sail and steam, to be produced by any single town or city in America," wrote Mr. Mitchell. Here flourished the Greenman yard, on which site the Seaport stands today, and the Mallory yard, operated by a family famous in many branches of American maritime life, one of whose members, Philip R. Mallory, is now president of the Marine Historical Assn.

We in Kingston can brag too, but our proof is underwater, there's the Clermont replica, also the glorious Queen of the Hudson, the nationally famous Mary Powell, the Ice King, the famous sturdy, Norwich, the oldest steamboat in the world when she ended her days, a proud sidewheeler. The Skilly-put, otherwise known as the Chain-Ferry, and Riverside and many others which could have made such a wonderful start for a Marine Museum at Kingston Point Park. I still have a feeling, that through some miracle we will have a Kingston Point Park again, and perhaps a Marine Museum.

Unskilled Convicts

Fort Madison, Iowa (AP)—Percy Lainson, Iowa state penitentiary warden, says men do creative work with their hands are less likely to wind up in prison. About 20, of the 1,300 penitentiary inmates here have been skilled workers, he says, and "strangely, most of them are in for murder."

HEALTH FOR ALL

NEW TOOLS

Sometimes it seems that man is in a constant struggle with the machines he invents. He creates the monster, and then for awhile he is scared to death of what it will do to him. He finally learns how to use it. It becomes one more of his tools for better living.

Back in 1895 when Conrad Roentgen announced the discovery of the X-ray, there was a sensation. Newspaper and magazine writers, fascinated by the possibilities, published bizarre speculations on the uses to which this strange ray could be put. They were serenely untroubled by scientific fact, so that what they wrote had all the charm of fantasy and the excitement of flying saucers.

Serious Victorians were horrified. There was something not quite "nice" about the whole thing. Enterprising British merchants sold X-ray proof underclothes to fastidious ladies. A bill was introduced into the New Jersey Legislature prohibiting the use of "X-ray opera glasses" at the theatre.

In time the sensation died down, of course, and people came to accept the X-ray for the valuable medical tool it is. Nowadays, the X-ray bus comes to town and we all troop over and get in line. In less than a minute the machine takes a picture that will indicate whether or not we have healthy chests. We know that many unsuspected cases of tuberculosis have been discovered in this way. We know that many lives have been saved because of early discovery of TB by the X-ray.

It's odd to recall the words of an editorial in a 19th century magazine commenting on the "revolting indecencies" of the X-ray: "Perhaps the best thing would be for all civilized nations to combine to burn all works on the Roentgen rays."

There are times when we may feel the same about atomic energy or automation. It's a fair hope that, in 50 years, those inventions, too, will be quiet servants of man's welfare. This column is sponsored in interest of better health by the Ulster County TB & Health Association, 74 John street.

THEIR SECOND COMMENCEMENT — West Point cadets are barred from marriage during their undergraduate days, but they waste no time remedying the situation following commencement. Leaving West Point Cadet Chapel under the traditional arch of swords are Lt. and Mrs. Conrad C. Ege, of Milwaukee, Wis. She is the former Patricia A. McSwain, of Dayton, Ohio. At right, D. Bellmont Rising, of San Francisco, Calif., ushers daughter Barbara Jean into the chapel for her marriage to Lt. Rufus R. Hart, also of San Francisco.

Commencement Held at St. Ursula Sunday; Mary Denton Wins $3,000 in Scholarships

"Science has invented the methods by which a new era of prosperity can be achieved through the use of atomic energy, but thereby it has armed civilization with the tools of self-destruction. Which course shall be pursued? This is the challenge and here are the opportunities that lie in your future," attorney J. Edward Conway, former Ulster county judge and member of the State Civil Service Commission, told graduating students at the Academy of St. Ursula yesterday.

Marius street was merited with more $3,000 in scholarships.

The awards and scholarships for Miss Denton include a $100 annual scholarship to Newton College of the Sacred Heart; $1200 annual scholarship to Marymount College, Tarrytown; $1300 annual scholarship plus a $300 annual grant in aid to Manhattanville College of the Sacred Heart, Purchase; and a $350 annual State Regents scholarship.

Miss Patricia Hunter was awarded a $200 Generoso Pope Memorial Scholarship from the department of education of the Archdiocese of New York.

Miss Nancy Demski received medals for Christian Doctrine, Excellence in Studies and Best English Essay.

A medal for Christian Doctrine was also awarded to Miss Katherine Szymanski and medals for Excellence in French were presented to Miss Patricia Hunter and Miss Catherine Zates.

Included in the 1956 graduating class were the Misses Joan B. Ambrose, Susan J. Bott, Helen S. Bush, Patricia A. Bruck, Marie-Angèle Cameron, Jeannette I. Christodolus, Nancy A. Demski, Mary D. Denton, Jacqueline A. Douglas, Jean M. Duffy, Joanne M. Fasano, Kathryn R. Feeney, Patricia Fraser, Mary Anne Gillespie, Ann E. Gormley, Elizabeth A. Gormley, Mary A. Huber, Patricia A. Hunter, Shirley A. Motrie, Patricia A. Nawe, Charlotte M. Niedzwieki, Natalie A. O'Reilly, Marie R. Roach, Ann J. Schultz, Katherine M. Szymanski and Catherine M. Zates.

Following Mr. Conway's address, the Right Rev. Msgr. Martin J. Drury spoke to the group. He reminded the graduates of the debt of gratitude owed to their teachers and parents for the sacrifices that have enabled them to receive an education. "You have a debt of gratitude to them and for the love of God, my dear young ladies, repay that debt," he said.

During the awarding of honors, it was noted that Miss Mary Denton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Denton of 108

Ulster Park, was the first to receive an award.

Mr. Conway emphasized the need for good leadership and strength of convictions.

"True leadership is not to be confused with popularity," attorney Conway said. "It has been said that even a fool will find greater fools to admire him." If one seeks the accolades of others he will bend and yield his principles to maintain his place. A true leader must stand upon the solid ground of right principle without compromise and without arrogance.

Speaking directly to the graduates, Mr. Conway emphasized the need for good leadership and strength of convictions.

"True leadership is not to be confused with popularity," attorney Conway said. "It has been said that even a fool will find greater fools to admire him." If one seeks the accolades of others he will bend and yield his principles to maintain his place. A true leader must stand upon the solid ground of right principle without compromise and without arrogance.

Following Mr. Conway's address, the Right Rev. Msgr. Martin J. Drury spoke to the group. He reminded the graduates of the debt of gratitude owed to their teachers and parents for the sacrifices that have enabled them to receive an education. "You have a debt of gratitude to them and for the love of God, my dear young ladies, repay that debt," he said.

During the awarding of honors, it was noted that Miss Mary Denton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Denton of 108

Ulster Park, was the first to receive an award.

Mr. Conway emphasized the need for good leadership and strength of convictions.

Russians Pushing Nuclear Program

Rochester, N. Y., June 11 (AP)—The Soviet Union is embarked on a crash program in nuclear physics according to Dr. Robert Marshak of the University of Rochester.

Dr. Marshak, chairman of the university's physics department recently returned from a trip to Russia with 13 other U. S. physicists.

Marshak said he visited Moscow, Leningrad and Kiev.

He observed, he said, what seemed to be a "spiritual lift" in the country, but added the Soviet government appeared to be pushing a crash program in nuclear physics.

He reported that a number of Soviet scientists once listed as being in prison camps were back at work in their laboratories.

The 14 Americans were the first nuclear physicists from the U. S. S. R. to be admitted to the

Snyder Quoted For Predictions

The New Yorker magazine in which its issue of January 28 publishes an interview with Frederic Snyder in which the local lecturer and news analyst forecasts the forthcoming frequency of words in the headlines news ending in "al."

The latest headline bearing out the prognostication is the intestinal surgery undergone by President Eisenhower. Along with the growing list of words ending in "al" in connection with the president, which includes abdominal and hospital, was the power house crash at Niagara Falls last week, which brought out in the headline such words as electrical, natural and industrial.

The interview in the magazine reads in part as follows:

"We're moving out of the 'y' frequency and into the frequency of words ending in 'al.' The big news this year will be political, not only global and national and congressional. This is also going to be a big geo-physical year, with the different nations setting up bases in the antarctic coastal regions. In financial circles, the news will be good but not sensational. On the other hand our criminal aspects will grow darker and darker. And the only way we can combat it is by a return to spiritual values."

In answer to the question, will the president run again? Mr. Snyder is quoted as saying, "The White House will see a change this year. Neither Eisenhower nor Nixon will be in the electoral picture. Nobody knows better than our great President that Uncle Sam cannot win any game in which a stethoscope is Commenting on previous predictions, The New Yorker states last year he advised us to watch out for words ending in "y" and besides the President's coronary and of course recovery, there were "y's" only to satisfy any but the most hardened skeptics.

Canadian Storms

Edmonton, Alta., June 11 (AP)—A series of thunderstorms and blasting winds swept parts of the prairie provinces yesterday, causing widespread damage and disrupting communications. Telegraph, telephone and power lines bore the brunt of the damage. High winds tore the roof from a three-story frame hotel at Weyburn, Sask., 120 miles southwest of Moose Jaw. Five cars were damaged in Calgary when a heavy sign blew down and crushed them, falling trees damaged cars in other sections of the city.

Will Attend Game

The Men's Club of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, Spring and Horne streets, will attend the Milwaukee Braves-Brooklyn Dodgers baseball game Saturday, June 16 at Brooklyn. Tickets may be secured from Frank Doyle or Lou Schaefer.

Pickets Greet Soviet Clergy

Los Angeles, June 11 (AP)—More than a dozen pickets greeted two visiting Russian clergymen when they attended church services in downtown Los Angeles Sunday.

Most of the placard-carrying pickets represented Ukraine and Baltic Nationalist groups but several were from the American Council of Christian Churches.

Dr. Jakob Zhdikov, president of the All Union Council of Evangelical Christian Baptist Churches of Russia, said of the pickets:

"It is their right."

Zhdikov and Dr. Alexander Levindavit, vice president of the Russian church group, spoke to more than 1,100 persons at the Temple Baptist Church in the Philharmonic building.

Two other members of the delegation visited the Calvary Baptist Church in nearby El Monte. No pickets appeared there.

The visiting clergymen were picketed again—although they were unaware of it—when all four visited a church in Long Beach.

About 20 pickets showed up after the Russians had entered the First Baptist Church in the resort city. They had dispersed again by the time the delegation left.

The placards carried by the pickets in Los Angeles read, "Ivan go home," and "Christ and Marx don't co-exist."

The Soviets said it was the first time on their American tour they had been picketed. The Russians, returning a visit to their country by four American Baptist leaders, planned to leave today for San Francisco and attend the American Baptist convention meeting in Seattle.

Chicken Unruffled

Danial, Wyo., June 11 (AP)—A chicken crossed U. S. 189, which passes through this western Wyoming hamlet, and William DeGraw of Labarge, Wyo., slammed on his brakes. An auto driven by his brother, Jim, also of Labarge, rammed into William's car. Jim and his wife, Doris, suffered bruises of the nose, mouth and leg. A passenger in Jim's car, Merna Krehnheyer, suffered fractured spine and was hospitalized at Rock Springs. State Patrolman Glen Crews, who investigated the accident, estimated damage to both cars at $1,500. The chicken was unharmed.

Adenauer Gets Degree

He was a guest of honor at a private, formal dinner given by Yale President A. Whitney Griswold and spent the night at Griswold's residence. The chancellor is on a week's visit to this country.

Bergen TV Show Tuesday Has Two Local Interests

A former Kingston resident will be on the Edgar Bergen show Tuesday night—because he has been accused of resembling Mortimer Snerd, country bumpkin dummy.

This information comes from Seaman Jacobs, a local native, who co-writes the show, "Do You Trust Your Wife."

The Snerd-like guest will be Joe (Elmer) Lenzer, formerly of the hillbilly trio of Zeb, Zeke and Elmer who entertained at the Elcker Hotel in the mid-thirties when it was managed by Jack Feye.

Lenzer will appear on the show with his second wife whom he married a few months ago. His first wife, who died, was a local woman.

Jacobs, a son of Mrs. Harry S. Jacobs of 189 Hurley avenue, is one of television's top writers.

To Hold Probe

Washington, June 11 (AP)—Senate investigators sought today a first-hand account of how the Polish government tries to induce Polish emigres to return to their Communist-ruled homeland. The Senate Internal Security Subcommittee summoned Severyn Bialer, a former anti-American propagandist for the Polish Communist party, for further testimony. Bialer fled to the West last Jan. 31 and arrived in this country about five weeks ago. His defection was disclosed when he testified last week about what he called a struggle for power inside the Kremlin since Stalin's death in 1953. The subcommittee said it intended to question him today about the Polish redefinition campaign and the activities of American Communists who have been deported to Poland.

Boycott French Ships

Alexandria, Egypt, June 11 (AP)—Passengers boarding a French liner had to carry their own baggage today because of an Egyptian dockers' boycott of French ships. The dockers union voted the boycott in protest against French policy in Algeria. The French passenger liner La Marquise was the first to enter Alexandria harbor since the boycott started. The crew of the 17,000-ton liner helped 21 disembarking passengers with their baggage and also unloaded mail and a cargo of three automobiles. Ten passengers boarding the ship for Beirut carried their own baggage.

Predict Retirement

Frankfurt, Germany, June 11 (AP)—The newspaper Frankfurter Rundschau predicted today that if President Eisenhower is re-elected, Secretary of State Dulles will go into retirement. The independent conservative newspaper made the statement in commenting that due to Eisenhower's illness visiting Chancellor Konrad Adenauer will confer with Dulles. The newspaper said Dulles "belongs to the era" of V. M. Molotov, who has been returned by the Russians as foreign minister. Most of the West German press deplored the fact that Eisenhower's illness occurred just as Adenauer was in the United States to visit him.

Would Boost Trade

Yarmouth, N. S., June 11 (AP)—A border spanning campaign to boost trade and travel between the Atlantic provinces and the New England States appeared gaining momentum today. State and provincial leaders, the example of cooperation in launching a new ferry service between them, will meet in September to plan other enterprises. Forecasts that the two adjacent areas will come closer together economically soon were voiced many times at weekend ceremonies opening the new auto ferry between here and Bar Harbor, Me.

Belated Invite

Miami, Fla., June 11 (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Daniel have received an invitation to attend the wedding of Grace Kelly and Prince Rainier in Monaco. Daniel was acquainted with the grandfather of the prince and said the prince called him from New York last February. The wedding took place in April. The invitation to the Daniels was erroneously addressed—hence the delay in delivery until Saturday.

Reformed Synod Sets Stewardship Education Plans

General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, in its 150th regular meeting at Holland, Mich., approved the creation of a Department of Stewardship Education, and elected the Rev. Howard Glenn Teusink, secretary for young people's work in the churches Board of Education, to the directorship of the Department.

Mr. Teusink is a native of Holland, Mich., a graduate of Hope College and Western Theological Seminary, has served pastorates in Michigan and Iowa, and for the past three years has directed the denomination's youth work.

The new Department will be the executive arm of the Synod's Stewardship Council, chaired by the Rev. A. A. Dykstra of Rock Valley, Iowa. All the program boards of the denomination have membership on the Council. The office for the new department will be at Reformed Church headquarters at 156 Fifth avenue, New York city and work will begin on July 1.

The Synod reaffirmed its stand that "voluntary total abstinence is the desired behavior of all church members" and declared that since all people are created in the image of God, "a continuous and sincere effort be made to integrate all peoples in all areas of life."

The Synod also directed the Christian Action Committee, headed by Dr. Arnold Van Lumel of Clover Hill, N. J., to prepare study materials in the fields of mental health, marriage counseling and the benefits and problems of television.

Allentown Nears First in Eastern

(By the Associated Press)

The red hot Redbirds from Allentown were in a virtual tie for first place in the Eastern League today.

Ernie Palmieri allowed the host Williamsport Grays only six hits, all singles, yesterday as the Redbirds did all their scoring in the first two innings and walked to a 5-2 victory.

The victory put the Redbirds in second place, only 14 percentage points behind the first-place Binghamton Triplets. A scheduled game between the Triplets and the Blue Jays at Schenectady was rained out.

The Syracuse Chiefs blanked the Albany Senators 2-0 in the first game of a scheduled twinbill at Albany. The other game was washed out. And the Reading Indians edged the Johnnies 6-5 at Johnstown.

In games Saturday, Reading downed Johnstown 12-8, Williamsport took Allentown 7-5, Schenectady blanked Binghamton 1-0, and Syracuse beat Albany 5-3.

New Zealand Trotter Makes Debut at Vernon

Vernon, June 11—Vodka S., the first trotter to campaign in United States from New Zealand, will make his debut tonight in the third race as Vernon Downs presents a nine race card which includes 11 previous winners.

Race Secretary Purvis Lawrason has rematched many of the winners who will be facing more difficult tests as the 1956 meet moves into its tenth night. The New Zealand horse owned and driven by Jack Shaw of the town of Christ Church, South Island, N. Z., has been training at Roosevelt Raceway since it disbanded in April. It won two qualifying races at Roosevelt in the 2:09 bracket. Racing customs are somewhat different in New Zealand and it has been taking Vodka S. some time to readapt his style. However, fans will like to know that Vodka trotted a half mile in 58.2 and now holds the world's record for the 1% miles on a clay track. The mark is 3:26.

With their curiosities somewhat satisfied by the appearance of Vodka, fans will turn to the featured 4th and 6th races, the two divisions of the Frank and Eddie's of Clinton Trophy stake. H. K. MacPherson's Clintonian candidate who has already won in 2:05.3 at Vernon, is favored to repeat. He will get plenty of opposition, however, from the two-time winner from Oneida, Sturdy Man 2:05.3. Newport Lady, Cold Spring George and Desert Fox are others fans may wish to consider seriously. In the second division, Susie Win 2:07.2, another two-time winner, gets the nod. Warren Harp will be a serious threat with Home Stretch and Fred Egan, the veteran Grand Circuit driver, will pilot Come On into contention. Another winner, Farcean, piloted by John Heilig Jr. of Rome, may pull an upset.

Two winners, Rilda Brook, 2:05, and Victor Scott 2:12.2 threaten Floyd Grattan and Edwin Hanover in the seventh race while the eighth race, a 24 class pace, is dominated by three winners. Fred Astaire 2:03.2, Duration 2:04.2, and Meadow Dazzle 2:03.9 with a newcomer Henry Brewer piloted by Harold Dancer Jr. comprising a formidable threat. Dancer is one of the well-known Dancer brothers who usually race in New York City. P. J. Tallman's Hallie Dominion possibly could pull an upset.

Dan Irving of Prattsburg, the leading driver to date, will try for four more victories as he will pilot Dante in the third, Mighty in the fifth, Meadow Dazzle in the eighth, and Mighty Rose in the ninth.

Maine's population declined 2.6 per cent between April 1, 1950 and July 1, 1954.

Armstrong Leads JVs In Hitting With .454

Hobie Armstrong paced the Kingston High School junior varsity in hitting over the season just completed, according to figures released by Coach Ken Brown.

The only other regular who hit above .300 was Tom McKinney, an outfielder. McKinney batted .307 and one of his four hits was a double.

Charlie Williams got the only other homer on the team while hitting .230 and playing regularly at second.

Finn, German Set
Pace as Equestrian
Olympics Open

Stockholm, June 11 (AP)—A Finn and a German set the pace among early competitors today in the dressage portion of the Three-Day trials as the Equestrian Olympics opened before a sun-drenched crowd of 7,000 at Olympic Stadium.

The first American to ride, army Major J. R. Burton of Berwyn, Ill., fared poorly.

O. Routhe of Germany, riding Susti, took the early lead with 98.4 penalty points with Finland's K.O.E. Tolvanen close behind with 107.6. Maj. Burton suffered 155.6 penalty points in his ride aboard Huntingfield.

DRESSAGE is one of the most complicated maneuvers in sports. The object is to show calmness, keenness and manageability of the horse as well as regularity, lightness and freedom of his paces. The moves are performed in a rectangular arena and viewed by five judges. The rider with the fewest number of penalty points is the winner.

In events of Olympic caliber, 90-110 penalty points is considered good and 80 or below exceptional.

Burton, who wore a U. S. Army uniform with a first cavalry division shoulder patch as well as one from an armored division, said he was satisfied with his ride. "I thought Huntingfield went exceptionally well for the two errors. The fact that I have been riding him only three days was a big disadvantage."

THE TWO ERRORS he referred to were when Huntingfield trotted a step passing from the extended to ordinary gallop and when he jiggled during a later exercise.

Thirty riders were listed to perform the dressage today and 27 more tomorrow. The other sections of the three-day event, endurance and jumping, are listed for Wednesday. The games themselves continue for eight days.

American ace Billy Steinkraus attracted almost all the attention in yesterday's opening ceremony when his horse, Night Owl, went over on his side during the parade. Steinkraus slipped his stirrups, stepped calmly aside and controlled highly excited animal with a tight rein. A few seconds later he was back in the procession.

"One of the finest pieces of horsemanship ever seen in Sweden," commented one of the Swedish organizers of the games.

The Equestrian Section of the games ends next Sunday.

Rockets on Farm

Oswego, N. Y., June 11 (AP)—Farmer Clarence Smart reaped a lot more than he sowed. Three navy rockets plowed into his land Saturday. A specialist from nearby Camp Drum dug them up and said they were a harmless, practice type. But nobody has been able to determine where they came from. Mrs. Smart thought she heard a jet plane go by about the time her husband
